Columbus, OH 43229

Our Mission:

The Ohio Domestic Violence Network advances the principle that all people have the right to an oppression and violence free life; fosters changes in our economic, social and political systems and brings leadership, expertise and best practices to community programs.

As the state's largest and most comprehensive resource on domestic violence, ODVN regularly provides information to and links between key stakeholders including:

- domestic violence shelters and programs
- Ohio General Assembly
- United States Congress
- Federal and State agencies
- justice system, healthcare and other allied professionals
- media
- professional associations
- domestic violence victims, survivors, and communities

ODVN is funded by Attorney General of Ohio State Victims Assistance Act and Victims of Crime Act, Office of Criminal Justice Services, U.S. Department of Justice and U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Member of Community Shares of Mid-Ohio and the National Network to End Domestic Violence

ODVN Services

TRAINING INSTITUTE

ODVN offers an extensive training program on topics such as improving the police and medical response to domestic violence, advocacy fundamentals, justice systems advocacy, trauma informed care, impact on children and others. ODVN also provides training designed to improve the response of allied professionals, increase safety for domestic violence survivors and to hold perpetrators accountable.

LOCAL PROGRAM SUPPORT

ODVN offers on-site and telephone consultation to build the capacity of domestic violence shelters, programs and allied professionals. ODVN helps to identify and respond to the unique needs of children living with domestic violence and runaway/homeless youth, develop trauma-informed and victim-defined advocacy services and with building innovative collaborations with the child welfare system. ODVN sponsors networking caucuses and task forces for legal advocates, child advocates, women of color and Executive Directors.

STATEWIDE TOLL-FREE INFORMATION AND REFERRAL LINE: 1-800-934-9840

ODVN operates this line during office hours providing linkages to your local domestic violence programs, hotlines, and resources in your community.

NETWORK NEWS

ODVN's electronic newsletter is your connection to a wide spectrum of current issues, events and resources in the field of domestic violence throughout Ohio and the United States.

RESOURCE CENTER

ODVN develops and disseminates publications, brochures and other resources which promote emerging research and best practices and provides information to survivors, advocates, and other professionals. Call us for more information or visit our website at www.odvn.org.

PREVENTION

ODVN offers training and technical assistance specifically focused on preventing domestic violence, dating violence, intimate partner violence, and family violence. Services are geared toward health promotion and keeping violence from happening in the first place. ODVN engages men in preventing violence through the Ohio Men's Action Network (www.OHMAN-Ohio.org).

PUBLIC POLICY

ODVN works to create social change and reform systems to improve the response to and expand protections for survivors of domestic violence. Public policy work includes monitoring and providing testimony and education on state and federal legislation.

LEGAL ASSISTANCE FOR VICTIMS PROJECT

ODVN's civil legal assistance project provides legal help to survivors of domestic violence, sexual violence and stalking who are unable to secure legal services privately or through other resources such as Legal Aid, Crime Victims Compensation, local clinics or pro bono programs.
